Size & Fit Specifications

Sizing & Fit Note

Sizing and fit requirements can vary between brands, collections, and target markets. The measurements provided are our standard development specifications and can be adjusted to match your requirements.

If you already have your own size chart or preferred measurements, please feel free to share them with us. If you have a reference garment that represents your preferred fit, you can send the garment to us for measurement and pattern development.

For B2B production, we recommend confirming the size chart and fit sample before bulk production to ensure the final garments meet your expectations.

Let's Get The Details Right

Every brand has its own fit, measurements, and production requirements. If you have a question, a specific sizing requirement, a reference garment, or simply need help understanding the specifications, we're happy to discuss it with you.

Share your requirements with us, and our team will help you work through the details before moving forward with production.
